

TOTALITY IN TELLICO

Saturday, August 19, 2017

7-10 .-Solar Stacks-by Biker sign
 10-Noon– Dreamcatcher Class- C Hall Museum, Bld 2
 11-7 - Food Truck-Walking Bridge area
 1-9 - SongFarmers Harvest Festival
 8-10 p.m.– The Milky Way Star Party– C Hall Field beside the Garden area

Sunday, August 20, 2017

7-10 a.m.-Solar Stacks-by Biker sign
 10-Noon– 18 minute Christian inspired eclipse video with Steve Hall will loop
 11-5– Food Truck– Walking Bridge area
 12:30-2:30– Dreamcatcher Class– C Hall Museum, Bld 2

ECLIPSE DAY/ Monday August 21, 2017

7-10 -Solar Stacks by Biker Gear sign
 11-4- Food Court beside the walking bridge : Weiner Wagon, Pork Palace, Snow Cones, Cotton Candy
 10-2- Kids Zone /between the CH Museum & Visitors Center: 2 water slides

Noon-3:30– Eclipse Party in Charles Hall Field

STAGE AREA: South side of field

- McKee Promotions playing star themed music
- Storyteller entertaining with Cherokee stories about the Milky Way and the Cherokee's connection to the sun, moon, and stars
- Smoky Mountain Astronomical Society members describing the details of the sky an hour before the eclipse and during the eclipse including when to wear your eclipse glasses, see Bailey's Beads, the Diamond Ring, and the rare Sun's corona
- Amateur weather person announcing changes in temperature, humidity, & wind

Parking on Eclipse Day:

Vehicles & Campers in Charles Hall Field-$5/car or $10/overnight Portable Potties, water hose available on north side of field, no electricity

Food
 Music,
 Space Videos all day

Restrooms: Charles Hall Museum Buildings, Visitors Center, & portable potties in field

Bring lawn chair, eclipse glasses (will be for sale)

www.facebook.com/totalityintellico or call 423-253-2111

Hosted by The Charles Hall Museum & Monroe County Tourism